Introduction

The Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions (ODPP) is an independent agency within the WA Public Sector. It operates independently of the Government and reports to Parliament through the Attorney General. It is a critical participant in the administration of justice within Western Australia, providing an independent and effective criminal prosecution service, which is both fair and just.

Its core work is the prosecution of serious criminal offences in the Supreme and District Courts. It also manages indictable matters in the Perth Magistrates Court, appears for the State in the Drug Court, and undertakes prosecutions in the Children's Court. It brings and conducts appeals, secures extraditions and brings forfeiture proceedings under the Criminal Property Confiscation Act 2000. It also assists the Western Australia Police Prosecuting Division, through high level strategic and legal advice, to deliver effective and efficient prosecutorial services throughout the State in the courts of summary jurisdiction.

OUR MISSION is to provide the people of Western Australia with an independent and effective criminal prosecution service, which is both fair and just.

In achieving our mission, the ODPP acknowledges that in order to be responsive to the diverse needs of the community it services, the ODPP must be cognisant of the different perspectives and experiences that exist in all sections of the community and their potential impact on the provision of a fair and just prosecution service.

Statement of Commitment

The ODPP is committed to reconciliation between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and non-Indigenous people for the benefit of all Australians and to achieve improved economic and social outcomes for Indigenous Western Australians.

OUR VISION

is to provide the highest quality prosecution service for the people of Western Australia.

To realise this, the Office embraces its role in fostering reconciliation by working with Aboriginal people and communities in order to:

- build positive relationships and partnerships with Aboriginal people, communities and organisations;
- enhance our workforce's understanding of and respect for Aboriginal cultures; and
- increase employment opportunities for Aboriginal people within the ODPP.

As an active demonstration of our values all employees are responsible for achieving these priorities.

OUR VALUES

The ODPP is committed to the following core values in order to achieve its vision:

Justice	Integrity	Excellence
Independence	Respect	Leadership	Accountability

I have pleasure in presenting the ODPP Reconciliation Action Plan 2008-2010 demonstrating our commitment to the National Program of Action. The Plan focuses on how we can continue to strengthen and build a high reputation as the prosecution service for the people of Western Australia, particularly through providing our staff with a better understanding of the diverse and separate cultures within the Aboriginal communities and the skills and knowledge to make a difference.

Director of Public Prosecutions

Our Reconciliation Action Plan

Our Approach to Developing Our RAP

In May 2007, the Minister for Indigenous Affairs, Hon. Michelle Roberts MLA, announced that all State Government agencies were to develop a Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP). Two senior representatives from the Office attended a RAP Workshop in October 2007 hosted by Reconciliation Australia and the Department of Indigenous Affairs.

The process for developing the ODPP's RAP began with a 2-day Aboriginal Cross-Cultural Awareness to Consciousness Workshop, facilitated by Kooya Consultancy in January 2008, and attended by the Director of Public Prosecutions, Director Corporate Services, state prosecutors, paralegals and other key staff. The workshop particularly explored the implications of Aboriginal culture in the conduct of fair and just prosecution services and included a panel discussion with the following representatives from Aboriginal organisations and relevant government agencies:

- Dawn Bessarab, Manager Aboriginal Policy and Planning, Department of the Attorney General;
- Maureen Carter, Nillumbik Community Health Service;
- Dorinda Cox, Project Manager Aboriginal Healing for Family Violence and Sexual Assault;
- Ross Councillor, Senior Advisor Aboriginal Services, Department for Child Protection; and
- Christine White, Coordinator Child Witness Service, Department of the Attorney General.

The issues and ideas explored at the workshop formed the basis of a draft plan that was distributed for consultation by publishing on the Intranet for feedback, forwarding to the panel representatives and Kim Collard, Kooya Consultancy.

The feedback was reviewed and incorporated into the final plan.

Monitoring and Reporting

The RAP has initiatives which the agency will achieve during 2008-2010. The achievement of these initiatives will be monitored by the Compliance Management Committee and regular progress reports will be provided to the Corporate Support Committee and the Corporate Executive Committee, and be publicly reported annually to Reconciliation Australia.

Review

The plan will be reviewed and revised annually to ensure its initiatives remain relevant to the needs of the Office. The revised RAP will be provided to Reconciliation Australia.
